BEANIE BUYERS — Freshmen gathered Wednesday to purchase the traditional badge of their office, the freshman beanie. Beanie sales are expected to be brisk during the next three days before the annual Hello

Week begins Monday. Official orientation week activities end Thursday with the fun night scheduled for 7 p.m. in Cougar stadium.

nd Thursday Eve. . .

Orientation Activities Attract 3728

Use more evening of orientation activities remain for the freshmen and new students assembled on the campus today to begin careers at Brigham Young University.

Broken down into seven sections, the new students heard speeches of introduction from parent leaders, publications workers and Honor Council. Plus were shown, campus tours, fun, question and answer sessions conducted, and students spent hours taking ability and personality tests.

Tonight's final session is Fun Night, directed by the Pep Committee. Rich Rolapp, chairman. The program is designed to promote school spirit and pep. Cheerleaders will teach school yells, and the flag twirlers, song leaders, and band will be there to add to the spirit.

Alma Heaton will direct games. Events get underway at 7 p.m., instead of 8 p.m., as previously announced. Friday night, technically not a part of orientation week, a "strictly stag" dance is set for the Heritage Hall parking lot. Tommy Moon's orchestra, formerly the Y's Men, will furnish the music.

Tickets sell for 25 cents a person and may be purchased from stands in the Smith Fieldhouse, Smith Family Living Center and Student Service Center. They will also be sold at the dance.

General chairman for the Friday hog are Linda Pugmire and JoAnn Neff.

Freshmen Elect Five Members To New Council

Sixteen persons faced the wall in the Smith Fieldhouse Wednesday night, and assembled freshmen students elected five of them to the temporary Fresh Council. Elected were Doug Rhoton, Navasota, Tex., chairman; Meridene Christensen, Olympia, Wash.; Jill Baker, Calif.; Earl Ruffgraf, Montebello, Calif.; and Val Farmer, Seattle, Wash.

Voting followed the introduction of the 16 candidates and a resume of their qualifications by Sandra Reese, Redding, Calif., elections committee chairman. After they were all introduced, the candidates turned their backs to the audience and a standing vote was taken by members of the Spurs service unit.

Govern Frosh Activities

The newly elected Frosh Council will work as the governing body of the freshman class for five weeks. At that time, elections will be held for permanent officers.

Elections followed a freshman talent night and program which featured numbers in dance, drama, music from the freshman class. Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson, president of the Brigham Young University, and Harvey L. Taylor, BYU vice president, addressed the assembled freshmen before the talent program.

BYU Registration Set For Friday, Saturday

"Just under 10,000" are expected to register for fall quarter, according to Miss Lucile Spencer, registrar.

All students will register in alphabetical order beginning with the "L's" on Friday morning in Smith Fieldhouse. Students with "A" through "K" names will register Saturday, according to Alma P. Burton, newly appointed dean of admissions and records.

Latercomers in the "L" to "Z" group may register at 3:30 p.m. Friday and all latercomers may register at 3:30 p.m. Saturday. Any other students who register after Saturday will have to pay a late fee.

'LDS Leaders World's Best' —Elder Benson

SUN VALLEY, IDAHO—The greatest leaders in the world, when measured by the standards of the Lord, are the leaders of the Mormon church, Elder Ezra Taft Benson told over 250 student leaders at Brigham Young University leadership conference.

Elder Benson, a member of the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, said that only leadership that builds character is good leadership.

For more information on Leadership Conference and a full page of pictures, see page 10.

Minister of Agriculture, said that only leadership that builds character is good leadership.

Met World Leaders
The Mormon apostle told the BYU students that he had met with some of the world's leading political leaders and that the church leaders were superior to them in leadership.

Among those listed by Elder Benson were prime minister Nehru of India, Queen Elizabeth of England, Nikita Khrushchev of the Soviet Union, and King Hussein of Jordan.

Many speakers
The conference was also addressed by Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson of the BYU presidency; Dr. Leroy K. Nelson, chemistry department; Dr. Stewart Grow, political science department; Dr. Reed H. Bradford, sociology department; Dr. Wesley P. Lloyd, dean of students; and Paul Felt, coordinator of student organizations.

Students who attended school spring quarter of 1959 will be admitted to the fieldhouse with their activity cards. All new students or students returning to school after missing spring and summer quarters must show their admission fee receipts.

Tuition and fees may be paid before Friday in the fieldhouse. Students may pay fees by showing their admission slips, readmission slips or activity cards.

Students who drive should know their license numbers to complete registration. Housing clearance will also be required. All students must live in university-approved housing.

Movies will be shown Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Joseph Smith Auditorium for students who have completed registration or who are waiting for their turn.

The films are the Academy Award winning "High Noon," Walt Disney's "Nature's Half Acre" and "The Pearl," based on the John Steinbeck novel.

President's Welcome

My Dear Fellow Students:

As we embark together on a new year of adventure in learning and growth, I extend to you my heartiest welcome to Brigham Young University.

This year I look forward to one of the most successful periods of Brigham Young University history. Although broad expansion in enrollment and facilities may not be forthcoming this year, I anticipate a growth in spirit and scholarly attitude. Last week your student leaders met at Sun Valley for a Leadership Conference, and on Tuesday your student body president reported to the faculty in a pre-school conference. It was gratifying to know that the students of BYU have committed themselves to serious scholarship and raising the level of achievement. I wish to congratulate you on your mature resolve.

I am sure also that this increased scholastic endeavor and achievement will give added impetus to our student body continuing to be one of the most friendly and active in the country. There is a place for everyone at BYU and we want every student to feel at home. This is possible if we will take advantage of religious activity in the BYU Stake, learn to love and appreciate your classmates, and participate in the many campus activities.

It is my earnest wish and prayer that you will be successful and happy in your studies and in attaining your righteous desires.

Sincerely,

Ernest L. Wilkinson

President, BYU.

Banyan Sales Start Friday At Same Price

Banyan staff members kick-off the 1959-60 yearbook sales campaign Friday and Saturday during registration, Lynn Thacker, Banyan editor said Thursday.

Despite rising costs of photography and printing, the Banyan will sell for $5 as it did last year, according to Jeff Justesen, Banyan business manager. A new system of keeping track of sales through IBM cards has been instituted this year Justesen said.

PICTURE—appointments for Banyan individual portraits will also be made during Friday and Saturday's registration. The Banyan is one of 10 yearbooks in the nation in which individual pictures of the entire student-body appear without cost to the student. All Brigham Young University students who make an appointment will have their picture taken free of charge for publication in the Banyan.

Thacker invited persons interested in working on the Banyan staff to apply at the yearbook office, room 143 in the Student Service Center. He said that photographers, artists, writers, receptionists, space-salesmen and typists are needed.

THE BANYAN is slated to contain over 400 pages this year, the editor said, containing color and black-and-white photographs which chronicle student life at BYU from spectacular 50 yard line football shots to intimate pictures of life in the dormitories.

EASY DOES IT

A city banker who had spent his youth on a farm persuaded an old neighbor to take on his son for the summer. When the father call to ask how the boy was making out, the farmer declared, "I ain't the one to bandy words with you. If that boy of yours had one more head, he'd need a third pocket to put it in." Class of '63...

Freshmen Enter College Life As Orientation Week Ends

by Chris Allred
Feature Editor

Over 3,500 members of the class of '63 gathered in the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse Monday afternoon to begin Orientation Week activities.

These students have come to the Brigham Young University from all over the United States and from many foreign countries.

THEY ARE HERE for various reasons: to gain an education, meet new friends, have the experience of living away from home and being on their own, or maybe to meet their "one and only."

Moving into new homes, becoming acquainted with roomies, taking tests, tours of campus, and learning of university opportunities fill the freshman's day from eight in the morning until five in the evening.

ENTERTAINMENT, lectures and other bits of organized confusion fill the freshman's night. Upper classmen are going to be hard put to keep up with the enthusiastic freshman class if Orientation Week schedule is an example of what they can do.

CHEERY "HITS" resound across the quad as one group of freshmen salutes another in the traditional "Hi at the Y" spirit.

And to climax the week, freshmen will face the scramble of registration.

Comments like "Can't you just feel your leg muscles growing?" and "Where's College Hall—close down there?" or "Do you give prizes for making it up the 101?" were common among the weary newcomers.

LEARNING and understanding the University system of credit hours and planning class schedules proves confusing to many freshmen.

"You mean you have to sit in history five hours daily?" is a typical remark.

"I need a big sister" has become the cry of many freshmen. AWS Big and Little Sister booth workers have had to turn away many interested "little sisters."

'Stag or Drag' Style Saturday Night Dances

"Kick off Kapers" is the theme of three dances to be held Saturday night at Brigham Young University in the Smith Family Living Center, the Joseph Smith Ballroom, and in the Social hall.

"The dances which began at 8:00 p.m. will be both drag and stag," announced Jeff Matson, chairman of the Central Dance Committee.

TOMMY MOON and his band, formerly the Y's Men, will play in the Smith Family Living Center. This dance will be strictly stag.

Stan Taylor will provide the music in the Joseph Smith ballroom, and Grady Edenfield will play in the social hall. These dances will both be drag.

THE DANCES will cost 70 cents, drag and 40 cents, stag.

The dress will be appropriate for the occasion. "The Central Dance Committee is pushing an exchange program," Matson explained, "which will give students an opportunity to have the dances instead of going with one individual for the whole evening."

BESIDES MATSON, members of the Central Dance Committee include Joan Evans, Robin Schumacher, Judy Peterson, Lee Wilson, Holley, Wayne Sells, Sandra Dossington, Shari Champion, Marie David Payne.

TENNIS TRIUMPH—The racket and ball above partly symbolize the vast new physical education facilities which were completed around the Smith Fieldhouse during the summer. More facilities are in the offing.

You Need Another Muscle? YOU Can Now Help Provide It

Age is not the only style at Brigham Young University. Muscles too.

Eighteen new tennis courts, two ball and badminton courts, two football fields, golf driving ranges and putting greens, two horse pits, gymnastic and small courts and a special area make BYU look like a giant in physical fitness every day.

GET MORE TENNIS COURTS—Plans are being made for the north area, which will also include four softball diamonds. They may be converted into football fields.

With the north and south play areas have been equipped with changing lots and restrooms. The tennis courts and new softball fields and horseshoe pits are lighted for night play.

TO HOUSE athletically developed, muscle-bound students in style, many buildings on campus have been repainted and remodeled inside and out and re-roofed during the summer months.

Faculty, Staff Get Two Days Of Instruction

University officials conducted a two-day pre-school faculty conference Monday and Tuesday, featuring the theme "The University and Its Public."

Approximately 1200 Brigham Young University employees attended the annual convention.

Featured speaker was Francis C. Pray of New York, vice president for college relations, Council for Financial Aid to Education.

Elder LeGrand Richards, of the Council of Twelve, addressed the assembled educators, urging them to plant in the hearts of the boys and girls the desire to make something of themselves.

BYU President Ernest Wilkinson also spoke, cautioning "If the Brigham Young University should ever lose the gospel of Jesus Christ as its primary motivation, it would have no excuse for continued existence."

Instructions given at the pre-school conference served also to orient new faculty members, while new freshmen and sophomore students were undergoing orientation for college careers.

Five Credit Chem Class Starts Monday on TV

Television classes for college credit will be offered again at Brigham Young University. Beginning Monday, "Modern Chemistry," a Continental Classroom TV course, will be televised daily from 6:30-7 a.m. on channel 4, KUTV.

Credit may be earned by registering at the office of off-campus instruction in person or by mail, according to Dr. Hugh Peterson, associate professor of chemistry and local director of the course.

THE COURSE runs from Sept. 28 through May 27, and vacation periods are placed as near as possible to regular school holidays.

"Modern Chemistry" is the second college level TV course for credit to be offered on a network basis. Last year the Continental Classroom offering was "Atomic Age Physics."

ACCORDING to Dr. Peterson, residence credit or regular credit toward degrees, will be offered. Five credit hours will be given for each half year, the first half of which will be upper division course 311, and the second half of which will be graduate credit.

Those desiring credit must register with the university. There will be about 12 assignments, conferences will be held if necessary. Examinations will be given at the end of each half year.

DR. JOHN F. BAXTER, head of the General Chemistry Division of the University of Florida, will be the national teacher. Assisting him will be a nine member Advisory Committee appointed by the American Chemical Society. About 30 lectures will be given by Nobel laureates residing in this country.

Evening School Registration Opens

Registration for Evening School classes is open from September 21-26. A total of 1200-1500 enrollments is expected by Irene Webb, supervisor of the school.

Day school students intending to take evening classes may register at the regular fieldhouse registration, September 25-26. More than 150 classes representing 4 departments at Brigham Young University are available.

Data Needed

Student directory entries will be made from information recorded on forms being put in each student's registration packet. Data to be called for includes name, address, phone number, and home town.

Pressman Elected

Brigham Young University Press Manager Franklin Haymore was recently elected to the National Board of Directors of the Printing Industry of America, at the association's convention in New York City.

The Printing Industry of America is the largest trade association in the commercial printing industry. Mr. Haymore is also president of the Printing Industry of Utah.

Watch Your Money!

Students making purchases at the student supply center were reminded Thursday of the new change computers which automatically return change into a chute on the purchase counter.

Blaire Anderson, buyer for the student supply, said that some students, not aware of the change computers are leaving change in the chutes. Other students make unnecessary delays waiting for the clerk to hand them the change.

By picking up change quickly and moving away from the counter, the purchasing process can be speeded up considerably, Anderson said.

Vets Must Register For 14 Credits To Get Payments

Undergraduate veterans are required to register for at least 14 credit hours in order to receive fulltime payments, reports Veteran Coordinator Richard Grover.

Twelve credit hours may be taken if a non-credit deficiency course is required, added Grover.

Elected Director

Dr. Ernest J. Wilkins, associate professor of modern languages at Brigham Young University, was recently elected one of the 15 directors of the new Associate for Latin American Studies.

The new national society was formed to consolidate efforts to increase understanding between Latin American countries and the United States. Its organization stems from the hostile reception given Vice President Richard Nixon during his tour of the nations, reports Dr. Wilkins.

Reading Class Offered

Faster and more comprehensive reading is the goal of a special non-credit course offered by the English department and adult education and extension services.

Registration may be completed at the first class meeting, which is Wednesday, Oct. 14, 7-9 p.m. in room 211 McKay Bldg. The course will meet weekly through December 22. Tuition is ten dollars.

Security Asks Registration Of All Drivers

Capt. Leonard Christensen, Brigham Young University security chief, expects some 500 cars registered on campus autumn quarter.

In order to enforce campus traffic rules and provide adequate parking, Capt. Christensen and his staff strictly insist on the number one traffic rule—car registration.

Registration of the car is free and is done at the time of academic registration, he said. However, a year-long parking permit for campus parking lots costs $5.

The ASBYU Senate has recommended a fine of $10 for students who fail to observe the registration and parking permit regulation.

All students owning or driving cars are required to register for the entire year and parking permits will be sold for same period. Refunds will be given to those who only remain on campus one or two quarters.

Dr. Wayne B. Hales Elected Higher Education President

SALT LAKE CITY—Dr. Wayne B. Hales, dean of the general college of Brigham Young University, was elected president of the 1959 Conference of Higher Education, Saturday.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES met at BYU as the site of next year's higher education meetings. Other activities in the closing sessions of the conference, the participants passed a resolution which would "diversify the kinds of educational programs beyond the high school in accordance with the needs and abilities of students."

The group also urged the Utah Coordinating Council for Higher Education to be aware of the need for "thoughtful and comprehensive planning of Utah's changing educational needs in higher education."

Brigham Young University drama department's Arena Theatre presentation of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," goes into its sixth performance Thursday night in room 250 Arts building.

Tickets to the three remaining performances, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, are $1.50. Tickets may be obtained by calling the Speech Dept., ext. 2112. The ticket price is the same for students as for off-campus persons. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

WRITTEN BY George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, the famous comedy is directed by Dr. Harold I. Hansen, chairman of the BYU speech and drama dept. Featured in the cast is Ray Jones, as Mr. Whitesides, the man who comes to dinner.

Action in the play centers around Whitesides, a famous lecturer and traveler, who comes to the home of the Ernest Stanley's for dinner following a speaking engagement.

WHITESIDES is injured while at the Stanley home and, confined to a wheelchair, sets up headquarters there. A raft of strange persons, friends of the unexpected guest, turn up at the Stanley home and cause many humorous episodes.

Included in the visiting horde are a movie star, a biologist with a complete cockroach colony, and various other odd characters who keep the Stanleys on the verge of insanity.

RISE PRESTIGE

It wasn't too long ago that Skyline football was a joke brought up occasionally by eastern sportswriters to liven the conversation. However, a glance at last week's football results proves that the caliber of ball played in the Rockies is rapidly rising.

Utah State, figured to be an also ran in the title race, rose up to smite a better than average Idaho team, 14-0. Perhaps the Vandals were as crippled as their heartiest fans would have us believe, but that still takes nothing away from the Ags who have come a long way in a short time under John Ralston.

Perhaps Ralston learned his rage to riches technique from Pete Elliott at Cal, who achieved a "Rosy" miracle in a mere two years. At any rate it was a great day for the Aggies and a tremendous start for a new coach.

In the line of good wins, CSU's dumping of COP ranks as a really big boost for Skyline stock. Practically the same COP team dropped California last fall before the Golden Bears began to sniff the Pasadena roses.

FROSH FOOTBALLERS

A group of almost 110 freshman football candidates was present at a special meeting called by frosh coach Hal Mitchell. Included in the group were 35 recipients of grants-in-aid, including many all-league and all-state selections.

It's a more encouraging sign to see so many good prospects on campus after the poor year suffered by the Gatos last fall. This fall the frosh will play Utah's freshmen twice, USU once, and Montana once.

BASKETBALL BITS

Congratulations are in order to Director of Athletics, Eddie Kimball, who landed one of the best and toughest basketball schedules imaginable for Coach Stan Watts' quintet.

Facing what appears to be one of his more rugged coaching jobs as far as personnel is concerned, Coach Watts can be extremely proud of his lads if he holds his own against teams like USC, UCLA, Washington, Ohio State, Michigan State, Kansas State, Kansas, Loyola, not to mention a tough Skyline race.

The schedule is a publicity man's dream and a coach's nightmare.

A WORD TO THE Y'S

While many of you are new here and many have already forgotten the unpleasantness of last year's football disappointments, it may not be too early to remind the entire student body that to have a winner there must be spirit in the stands.

It's difficult to say whether the rooting section or the foot ball team was the more disappointing last season, let's hope neither is this year.

Cougars Edge Arizona

Brigham Young University's Cougars staged a fourth quarter rally last Saturday to down a determined Arizona eleven 18-14.

Trailing 14-0 at half-time, Coach Tully Stevens' charges started to click in the third quarter to narrow the margin to 14-6. The first Cat rally came on a draw play up the middle from 10 yards out with halfback Jack Clifford carrying.

However the Cougars, who had stayed with the ground game which hurt them so often last year, didn't come to life until Gary Dunn unlimbered his throwing arm. Dunn throwing from the tailback spot from the single wing hit Harold Hawkins on the Arizona 25 yard line.

Hawkins went all the way for the TD to complete the 42-yard play. Having failed to make their first conversion attempt, the Cats elected again to try for two points and failed.

Still trailing the Wildcats, 14-

12, halfback Howard Ringwood intercepted a Jim Geist aerial to set up the final Cougar tally. With Gary Dunn at the helm, the Cats failed to move in two plays on the ground.

Coach Stevens decided to rush quarterback Ron Startin into the game, with instructions to pass. Startin hit Ringwood up the middle, and the Cougar co-captain carried to the one-yard line. Startin sacked over for the score and the Cougars led 18-14.

The Cougar downfall in the first half came on draw plays to the weak side. Twice, in the Wildcat attack appeared to be fizzling, quarterback Geist called for the draw to the left after a fake power play right, and twice the entire BYU team was caught guard.

Aside from these two lapses, the Puma defense was effective. The Cats held the Arizona team to 191 yards, total offense. The BYU pass defense was especially tough, allowing only two passes of 11 to be completed for a net 21 yards.

Once the Cats mounted offensive attack they were most unstoppable. The Cougar rolled for 194 yards on 47 ground, and hit seven of passes for 126 yards in the second half.

Another highlight of the game was the punting of quarter back Dinn who averaged a little over 42 yards per kick.

With the Fresno State coming only three days away, Coach Stevens has been concentrating on defense against the "T" formation plays of the Bulldog Fresno State, under new head coach Cecil Coleman, may have a few surprises, since they did a bye last week and have been aiming all their practice sessions at the Cougars.

Last year the Cougars roared over the Bulldogs 28-7 in season opener. However series stands two to one Fresno State.

The summary of last Saturday's game is as follows:

Skyline Standings

	League Games					All Games
	W	L	T	Pct.	Pts. Op.	W	L	T	Pct.	Pts. Op.
Wyoming	1	0	0	1.000	58	0	1	0	1.000	58

Upsets Mark Openers

Utah State University's underdog win over a highly touted Idaho eleven and a comeback win by BYU's Cougars over a surprisingly tough Arizona team highlighted Skyline football play during the last weekend which saw the Skyline's football forces win three and lose two against non-conference opposition, while Wyoming ebbled Montana in Billings 38-0 in the only conference game on tap.

Coach Tally Stevens' Cougars scored two touchdowns in the first four minutes of the final quarter to defeat Arizona 18 to 14 after falling behind 14-0 early in the game.

Coach John Halston made his debut successful at USU by turning back an Idaho team which was favored by three touchdowns. His Farmers not only won by a score of 14 to 0, but outgained the Vandals in total yardage 373 to 286 with a well balanced air and ground attack.

The Aggies went 77 yards to a score the first time they got their hands on the ball, and were never headed thereafter as Bud Allen headed the running attack and Mel Montalbo spearheaded the aerial display.

With a Junior College transfer dominated team, this victory means much to the Farmer football fortunes, and could indicate that the Ags may be tougher than expected in conference play this year.

The other Skyline win came as Colorado State handed College of Pacific and it heralded ground gainer Dick Bass a 9-6 defeat in another upset.

Defender University won down to defeat at the hands of San Jose State by a 14-13 score when a last half rally fell short. D.U. scored both of its touchdowns in the last half, the last one coming on a 17-yard run by Jack Work after a pass interception, but the Pioneer's hopes for a tie faded as Gus Glascock's placement try was partially blocked.

New Mexico University's Lobos had their conference championship hopes dampened when the New Mexico Aggies handily defeated them by a score of 29 to 12. Coach Mary Levy's Lobos were rated as one of the better teams for the Skyline race after a second place finish last year, but this loss has definitely dropped the football hopes there.

In the only conference game played last week, Wyoming's powerful Cowboys led by quarterback Jim Walden ran rampant over a hapless Montana eleven, defeating them 58-0.

The Cowboys are the consensus favorite in the conference race, and they gave a warning of things to come with this showing.

Five Fall Programs...

Vienna Philharmonic Tops Season

Fall season billings for the Brigham Young University-Community Concert Association were announced Tuesday by Mrs. W. E. Evans, membership chairman.

Topping the concert series is the Vienna Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra conducted by Herbert Von Karajan, set for November 12th. Karajan directed the Berlin Symphony when it appeared in Provo in 1956.

Commencing the fall season will be a program by Eileen Farrell, October 29th, known by many as America's greatest soprano. Critics have praised the Farrell voice as "at once dramatic, lyric, and coloratura."

THE NEXT EVENING, October 30th, Flor Posters, of Belgium, will perform on the organ. He will play the instrument in the Joseph Smith Auditorium, which was formerly the Salt Lake Tabernacle organ.

On November 20th, Rostropovich, noted Soviet cellist, will perform. And on November 23rd, Hans Richter-Haaser, young German pianist who is billed as the "successor to Gieseking," will play a concert.

Pre-Med, Pre-Dent Students Form Campus Organization

A club for pre-medical and pre-dental majors is being formed this quarter. The first meeting will be held October 8 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 2201 of the Smith Family Living Center.

According to acting chairman Dale Murdock, the club is being formed to learn the advantages and disadvantages of the medical profession, view films, listen to guest lectures and have socials.

More information about the club may be obtained at the pre-medical table in the southeast corner of the green seats of the Smith Fieldhouse during registration.

BIG SISTERS — Big Sister chairman Mary Fritzsche, Chicago; and Marilynne Rich, Orem; show freshmen (l. to r.) Sonnie Richards, Bakers-field, Calif. and Sharon Cusick, Temple City, Calif., the fun that they will have this year by participating in the Big Sister Program.

BYU Big Sister Program Activated

The Associated Women Students is giving all upper class women an opportunity to be a great friend to a freshman through the Big Sister program.

Big Sister information is available at the booth on the lawn in front of the Student Service Center. Big and Little Sister information will be given there for two weeks. In case of rain the booth will be moved inside the Student Service Center.

According to Mary Fritzsche, Big Sister chairman, all women should contact the booth if they have been unable to contact their Big or Little Sisters.

The purpose of the Big Sister program is to acquaint freshmen with the campus, help them with registration and just be a friend.

Sun Valley Meet Aids, Inspires Student Leaders

Words of sober instruction and counsel, mixed with moments of bright laughter and light entertainment filled the three days of leadership conference, "Prime for Progress" at Sun Valley, Idaho last week.

THE BYU PROGRAM bureau and Sun Valley's numerous sports facilities combined to fill the free hours between serious sessions with exercise and entertainment. Below right, one of the popular outdoor activities, bicycle riding.

Finally delegates boarded buses to return to Provo. The picture at right proves without doubt they were "Primed for Progress."

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

it's Clark's annual back to school

APPLE CIDER PARTY

There isn't a student at dear old Alma Mater, young or old, who isn't invited to Clark's Apple Cider Party to be held all day Friday and Saturday. We're serving the finest, tastiest cider and the lightest, fluffiest SPUDNUTS in town. And it's all FREE, including an introduction to Clark's Almanack fashions which will be modeled throughout both days. On which ever day you don't register, sign in at Clark's for some relaxin' and friend-making. We've been waiting for you all summer long.

"The Look of Knowledgeable Scholar" is the look of the campus this year.

Year after year, Clark's has established the fashion trend on the campus at BYU. First came the Look; then the Look of Knowledgeable and now the Look of Knowledgeable Scholars right out of Clark's Almanack of Fashion for 1959.

Clark's alumni and student staff prides itself in keeping BYU students up on the latest and most desirable looks on campus fashions. You'll like the shop, "we want to be your friend" service that has been a family tradition at Clark's since its inception.

For the first time this year, scholars of all ages can charge it at Clark's with the new Clark's Charge Card. Ask about yours soon. You pay just 10¢ monthly.

Ask for your copy of Clark's Fashion Almanack (the cover shown at left). You'll find sage advice from the pen of Benjamin Franklin and the fashions that will be most kindly accepted on campus this year.

While at Clark's, improve your nature with the Dr. Herricks mood elevating pills. Just help yourself to the apothecaries' jar. It's the greatest pill in the world. Children cry for them.

One of Clark's many special services to students is the cashing of personal checks. We will be happy to honor your checks with proper identification and no additional charge.

These hours to serve you:

Tuesday thru Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 5:40 p.m.

Mondays only — 10:00 a.m. to 9 p.m.
